

International Conference on Comparative Analysis of Change related to Institutions and Policies after the Global Crisis : Dynamics and Configuration of the World Political Economy

December 6th to 8th 2014

Kyoto University (Institute of Economic Research N101/102)

Promoter : the Project Team Sponsored by Institute of Economic Research at the Kyoto
University and Graduate School of Advanced Leadership Studies, Kyoto University

Purpose

First, the conference examines the changes related to institutions and policies in the developed and emerging economies after the 2008 crisis. Second, it aims to explore the current configuration of the world political economy. Third, it argues over a methodological issue, namely how the comparative economics should approach to contemporary capitalist dynamics, diversity and crisis in the developed and emerging countries.
